Revised and updated edition shows you how to beat the bookie at the hardest sport for betting success. Included is a completely revised preview for the 2003/2004 season with a new season quarter table, new head to head statistics for all the English and Scottish divisions while the statistics for the playoffs, relegation and promotion chapter have been updated.

The main part of the book illustrates fifteen system studies, shows where to bet, find invaluable information, how to bet and how a profit can be made, and concludes with a full season diary showing how the author put his methods into operation.

Paul Steele has been involved in bookmaking for 12 years, first as a shop manager and more recently as an odds compiler and statistical analyser for a major bookmaking firm. He wrote the best-selling Essential Football Betting Guide and is a qualified football referee.
