SALES POINTS:

- One of the leading poker theorists and professionals playing in the UK today
- A remarkable insight into the workings of a star poker player's mind
- Over 1 million people in the UK now regularly play poker and other casino games online.

DESCRIPTION:

Winning Cash Game Poker offers a revealing insight into the methods and strategies of one of today's leading poker theorists and professionals in the UK.

Carl "The Dean" Sampson has been a professional online player, poker writer and coach for over six years. He writes for three leading poker magazines as well as the hugely popular Hendon Mob website.

Moving far beyond simple hand charts, Carl gets to the core of how a professional operates whilst at the table, revealing entire playing sessions and the methods that he uses to win - not just in online games but in private cash games and casino cardrooms as well.

The insights into the mindset of one of today's leading players on offer here will help players at every level to improve their game, from beginner to fellow professionals.

- Specifically written with modern cash games in mind
- Crammed full with innovative ideas, outlooks and strategies
- Written by one of the country's leading poker theorists
- Reveals the inner workings of the mind of a professional poker player
- Discusses many forms of poker not just in an online setting but in live games too

BIOGRAPHY:

'The Dean' is the nickname for one of the country's leading poker theorists. Carl started out playing professional blackjack and ran his own team from between 1998 to 2002. He switched to playing online poker in 2002 and rapidly advanced through the levels. He currently writes for several poker magazines including the World Poker Tour, Poker Pro Europe and Online Poker Pro as well the ever popular Hendon Mob website.
