DESCRIPTION:

At last, a new edition of one of the most useful reference books available to gamblers. The Punter's Handbook 2010 is for every gambler everywhere. A comprehensive listing of the best gambling titles currently in print across all subject areas.

Clearly organised, wide-ranging and up-to-date, this collection, put together by the Manager of the UK's leading gambling bookshop, is the authoritative final word on what's available now.

If you're not sure where to start you can check the subject Top Ten Bestsellers. Or if you simply can't quite remember the details of some invaluable but mislaid book just look through the clearly organised listings - and the chances are you'll find it listed here.

Fully updated now with over 850 books on gambling covering 20 different sports, this will be an indispensable addition to your library.
